- Best Low Budget Film (Under £1000): Celebrating creativity and resourcefulness in films produced with limited budgets.
- Audience Choice Award(s): Allowing the festival audience to select their favourite films.

Film Categories

Submissions are welcome across a range of categories, celebrating diverse storytelling and cinematic expression:

- Animation: Showcasing innovative animated films, from hand-drawn to computer-generated, pushing the boundaries of creativity and technical prowess.
- Documentary: Highlighting real-life stories, issues, or events in non-fiction films that challenge perspectives and provoke thought.
- Experimental: Embracing bold, unconventional films that defy traditional narratives or techniques, exploring new artistic possibilities.
- General: Open to all genres, this category celebrates a broad range of films with unique storytelling and strong direction.
- Music Video: Merging music with cinema, this category seeks visually stunning and creatively produced music videos that elevate the musical experience.
- Narrative: Focusing on strong, character-driven stories, this category welcomes films across all genres that showcase narrative excellence.

Ticket Sales

Tickets for the event will go on sale later this autumn, starting on 11th November 2024.

Submission Guidelines

The festival welcomes international entries and classifies short films as any production under 40 minutes in length. Films not presented in English must be accompanied by English subtitles or dubbing. Submissions are handled via FilmFreeway, with discounts available for multiple entries.
